PRINCIPAL'S UPDATE

11 November 2022

Dear Parents / Carers,

Success Stories

We would like to continue celebrating the successes of our students as we did last year. If you would like to share your success stories with us, please email us via the following address: achievement@wathacademy.com.

This week it is great to be able to share the success of Freddie Cooke-South, Freddie is one of our Y7 students and he swims for the Borough of Barnsley Swimming Club. Over half term he competed in the Yorkshire Championships and just this Weekend he competed in the North East Regional Championships. He had a number of successes, but his standout performance was in his 50m breaststroke where he got Gold, which means he's the North East Regional champion!

Well done Freddie!

Remembrance

This week we have continued in our preparations for our Armistice Day tribute. Each morning students have had an assembly which was delivered by members of the Royal British Legion during which they have observed the Last Post and a period of silence.

Wath Academy

PRINCIPAL'S UPDATE

Each year we form a display which has poppy crosses on which students show their gratitude to those who have lost their lives for their country. This year we also had the display and the front of school lit up in red.

At 11.00 am this morning the whole school will partake in two minutes silence outside on the Tennis Courts and Astro-turf. We have decided to conduct the silence outside so we can do this together as a whole school. A poem will be read, followed by the last post before finally observing two minutes of silence.

On Sunday, students and teachers from the Academy will also be present at the service held at Wath Parish Church on Remembrance Day.

Y11 Trials

This week Year 11 have started their trials. They have done this in an exceptional manner. Their attitude and commitment has been excellent and we are already looking forward to seeing how they have done.

Sixth Form Cabaret

We will be hosting this years Sixth Form Cabaret on Monday 21 November at 6:30 pm. Tickets are £6 for adults and £4 for children. We hope you can join us to celebrate the exceptional talents of our Sixth Form students.

Thank you once again for your ongoing support.

Yours sincerely

Mr Ransome
Principal

Safeguarding

Amigo is a social platform NOT suitable for Under 18's. It encourages its users to build up online relationships to unlock exclusive features such as private video and audio calls: essentially, the more that people chat, the more features become available to them. Please see the guide for information. #WakeUpWednesday

At National Online Safety, we believe in empowering parents, carers and trusted adults with the information to have an informed conversation about online safety with their children, should they feel it is needed. This guide focuses on one of many apps which we believe trusted adults should be aware of. Please visit www.nationalonlinesafety.com for further guides, hints and tips for adults.

What Parents & Carers Need to Know about

AMIGO

Amigo is a social platform which purports to connect strangers from around the world – and, with built-in translation software, it reduces the expected language barriers. Focusing heavily on one-to-one chat, video calls and live streams, Amigo encourages its users to build up online relationships and unlock exclusive features such as private video and audio calls: essentially, the more that people chat, the more functions become available to them. This is an app designed with mature users very much in mind and is therefore definitely not recommended for children.

AGE RATING

18

WHAT ARE THE RISKS?

ONE-TO-ONE COMMUNICATION

While online chats and livestreaming are a great way to communicate with people that children can trust (such as friends and family), Amigo encourages users to connect with complete strangers and develop a friendship through private chats, calls and videos. This will be a clear red flag for most parents, due to the possibility of a child encountering inappropriate content or an online predator.

INAPPROPRIATE CONTACT

Within minutes of signing up for our trial of Amigo (and without using a profile photo), users of the opposite sex were messaging with aggressive statements such as "You're not my type" and "Let's have fun". While the app's stated intent is to help people build friendships, some users previously seek to take these relationships in a more mature and ominous direction.

MEMBERSHIP COSTS

Like many apps that are free to download, Amigo's business model is centred on in-app purchases. Users are encouraged to pay for VIP membership – enabling them to send more messages each day and boosting their profile's visibility. People can also buy coins (again, for real money) which allow them to send virtual gifts and further increase the number of messages they can send daily.

LACK OF AGE VERIFICATION

Amigo makes no secret of the fact that it's for people aged 18 or above. There's no age verification, however, so a young person could simply sign up under a false date of birth. The app's algorithm claims to match users of similar ages (making them more compatible), but either the algorithm isn't very reliable, or most users have entered a false age which doesn't correspond with their profile pic.

REWARDS FOR REPEATED USE

Amigo gifts virtual coins to users if they reply to messages within 10 seconds, while there are also daily rewards for posting comments, sharing a video, getting likes or simply opening the app. It also encourages increasing 'intimacy levels' with other users to unlock extra features: once someone's online 'friendship' reaches Intimacy Level 3, they can hold one-to-one video calls with each other.

Advice for Parents & Carers

MONITOR DOWNLOADS

As well as frequent catch-ups with your child about what they've enjoyed doing online, you could consider taking the additional step of physically checking their phone every so often to see which apps they've installed. The safest option could be to enable 'ask to buy' (Apple) or 'purchase approvals' (Android) on their device, meaning your authorisation is needed to download any apps.

RESPECT AGE RESTRICTIONS

Apps have age restrictions for a reason, and Amigo is very definitely a mature content platform. Given that many of Amigo's users apparently use a bogus date of birth, you might want to remind your child about the implications of setting up a fake profile – such as being exposed to messages and videos that make them feel uncomfortable or feeling pressured into chatting with strangers.

BLOCK, REPORT, DISCUSS

Many children already know that connecting with strangers online is dangerous, but it never hurts to refresh their memory. Whatever communication apps your child uses, make sure they're fully aware that if anything online makes them feel uncomfortable, scared or upset, then they can block the user responsible, report the content, take a screenshot as evidence and come to tell you straight away.

ACTIVE LISTENING

If your child does approach you with a concern, make time to stop what you're doing and actively listen. Let them talk without interrupting or showing any judgement, then discuss their options and the possible solutions: this empowers them and reassures them that you're there to be supportive. If the issue is one that has put your child at risk, however, you may wish to contact the police.

Exceptional Experiences. Successful Lives.

Mrs Frith and Mrs Laite offer you a warm welcome to Wath Academy Library, which is located on the first floor, above Social Area 2. The Library provides a friendly space for students to read, do homework and take part in enrichment activities, many of which are student-led. The Library is open to all year groups at break and lunchtime, and homework club is offered after school from 2.50pm-3.50pm every day. IT and printing facilities are provided.

All students have a library account, meaning they can borrow books. The library has a stock of over 3000 fiction and non-fiction books which are regularly updated according to popularity and student requests. Books cater for a range of abilities and interests, whilst covering a variety of themes, ensuring that all students are represented and diversity is celebrated. In addition, the library has subscriptions to a daily newspaper and a number of magazines.

Students can use the library management system, Accessit, to search the library database, this can be accessed via the school Learning Platform. eBooks are available via the “ePlatform by Wheelers” app, meaning students can read books digitally on an electronic device. Please see the “how to borrow an eBook guide” for further information. Students can also volunteer to become Student Librarians, giving them the opportunity to develop their skills and get to know other students.

Genre of the Week

This week the library book display focuses on Remembrance.
